Please be informed that – in principal - we use two types of cookies that manage personal data: those that are essential for the operation of our service, and those that are not. Please note that the blocking of certain cookies from the latter type (in other words, if you do not consent to their use) may result in limited access or usability of the website/webshop/application as described in detail below.

II.4. Your rights and legal remedies:

Right to information and to access the data:

You shall have the right to obtain from Controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning you are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and the following information:

- a) the purposes of the processing;
- b) the categories of personal data concerned;
- c) the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
- d) where possible, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
- e) the existence of the right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing;
- f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
- g) where the personal data are not collected from the data subject, any available information as to their source;
- h) the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

Where personal data are transferred to a third country or to an international organisation, the data subject shall have the right to be informed of the appropriate safeguards relating to the transfer.

Controller shall provide a copy of the personal data undergoing processing. For any further copies requested by the data subject, Controller may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs. Where the data subject makes the request by electronic form means, the information shall be provided by Controller in a commonly used electronic form, unless otherwise requested by the data subject.

The right to obtain a copy referred to in the previous paragraph shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

The aforementioned rights may be exercised via the contact information specified in section II.2.

Right to rectification:

You shall have the right to obtain from Controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, you shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten'):

You shall have the right to obtain from Controller the erasure of personal data concerning you without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b) You withdraw consent on which the processing is based, and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- c) You object to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or processing is related to direct marketing;
- d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- e) the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject;
- f) the personal data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services.

The erasure of the data may not be requested to the extent that processing is necessary:

- a) for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;
- b) for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest;
- c) for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest; for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems and services on the basis of Union or Member State law or pursuant to contract with a health professional, when those data are processed by or under the responsibility of a professional subject to the obligation of professional secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies or by another person also subject to an obligation of secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies.
- d) for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, such as protecting against serious cross-border threats to health or ensuring high standards of quality and safety of health care and of medicinal products or medical devices, on the basis of Union or Member State law which provides for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the rights and freedoms of the data subject, in particular professional secrecy;
- e) for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, when those data are processed by or under the responsibility of a professional subject to the obligation of professional secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies or by another person also subject to an obligation of secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies;

- f) for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in so far as the right to erasure is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing¹; or
- g) for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to restriction of processing:

You shall have the right to obtain from Controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- a) The accuracy of the personal data is contested by you, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- b) the processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and request the restriction of their use instead;
- c) Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or
- d) You have objected to a processing carried out by Controller in the public interest or for a legitimate interest; pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override yours.

Where processing has been restricted for the aforementioned reasons, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with your consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State.

A data subject who has obtained restriction of processing pursuant to the aforementioned reasons shall be informed by Controller before the restriction of processing is lifted.

Right to data portability:

You shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning you, which you have provided to Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from Controller, to whom the personal data have been provided, where:

- a) the processing is based on consent or on a contract; and
- b) the processing is carried out by automated means.

¹ Processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, shall be subject to appropriate safeguards for the rights and freedoms of the data subject. Those safeguards shall ensure that technical and organisational measures are in place in particular in order to ensure respect for the principle of data minimisation. Those measures may include pseudonymisation provided that those purposes can be fulfilled in that manner. Where those purposes can be fulfilled by further processing which does not permit or no longer permits the identification of data subjects, those purposes shall be fulfilled in that manner.

In exercising your right to data portability pursuant to above, you shall have the right to have the personal data transmitted directly from one controller to another, where technically feasible.

The exercise of the right to data portability shall be without prejudice to the right to erasure ('right to be forgotten'). That right shall not apply to processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

The right to data portability shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

Right to object:

You shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning you by Controller which is based on the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Controller or is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by Controller or by a third party, including profiling based on those provisions. Controller shall no longer process the personal data unless Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning you for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing. Where you object to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.

Where personal data are processed for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, you, on grounds relating to your particular situation, shall have the right to object to processing of personal data concerning you, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

Right to withdraw consent:

You shall have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, provided that the processing by Controller is based on your consent. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Procedure for the exercise of the aforementioned rights upon your request:

Controller shall provide information on action taken on a request related to the exercising of the rights set forth in this Notice to you without undue delay and in any event within one month of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests.

Controller shall inform you of any such extension within one month of receipt of the request, together with the reasons for the delay. Where you make the request by electronic form means, the information shall be provided by electronic means where possible, unless otherwise requested by you.

If Controller does not take action on your request, it shall inform you without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt of the request of the reasons for not taking action and on the possibility of lodging a complaint with a supervisory authority and seeking a judicial remedy.

Controller shall provide the requested information and notification free of charge. Where requests from you are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, Controller may either charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or communication or taking the action requested, or refuse to act on the request.

Controller shall communicate any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing carried out to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. Controller shall inform the data subject about those recipients if the data subject requests it.

Ways to communicate your comments, questions or complaints

You can send any questions, requests or objections relating to your personal data stored or the processing thereof in writing or by email to one of the contact details of Controller specified in section II.2 of this Notice.

Legal remedies:

a) you may file a report and initiate an investigation by the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (seat: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11., mailing address: H-1363 Budapest, Pf. (P.O. Box) 9., phone: +36 1 391-1400, email: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu, website: www.naih.hu) based on an actual or threatened infringement of your rights regarding the processing of your personal information; and

b) in the case of infringement of your rights, you may seek judicial remedy against Controller as the controller. Your case will be given priority by the court. Controller will have the burden to prove compliance of the processing with the law. The adjudication of the case falls under the competence of the regional courts. At your choice, the action may also be filed with the regional court of your place of permanent or temporary residence.
